Let's Start!

Try on this jacket! It's from the new collection!

Learning Outcome

Accurately exchange information about buying things in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can make suggestions.
- I can ask and/or offer help at a store.
- I can talk about clothing and accessories.

Ask your partner:

- What clothing do you need to buy?
- Where do you buy clothing?

Let's Explore!

Vanessa and Peter decide to buy a new jacket for Peter. What does the salesperson suggest?

* A "jacket" can be something you put on to go outside, or part of a man's suit (formal clothing).

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Salesperson: Hello, can I help you?
Peter: Hello, I'm looking for a jacket. Do you like this one, Vanessa?
Vanessa: No. I don't like it. It doesn't look good on you.
Peter: Mmm. You're right.
Salesperson: May I suggest this jacket? It's from the new collection.
Peter: That's nice. How does it look?
Vanessa: It doesn't fit well. The sleeves are too long. They cover your hands.
Peter: You're right. Could I try on a different jacket?
Salesperson: Sure. Why don't you try this one?
Peter: What do you think?
Vanessa: It's perfect. Now you need to buy a tie.
Salesperson: I recommend this tie to go with the jacket.
Vanessa: Sold! Now to the dress department!

Let's Practice!

Peter and Vanessa talk to the salesperson. What do they say?

Instructions: Match the beginning of the question or statement on the left with its end on the right.

Learning Points

Offering Services and Help

When you work in a store, it is important to greet customers politely.

Here's how to offer services or help in a store:

Examples:

- Hello, how can I help you?
- Good morning! Can I help you?
- May I suggest ...
- Good afternoon! Please tell me how I can help you.
- If you have any questions, please let me know.
- Why don't you ... ?
