Let's Start!

It suits you!

Learning Outcome

Accurately exchange information about buying things in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- What is your favorite store?
- Why do you like shopping there?
- What color suits you?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about what people do and what people are doing.
- I can talk about clothing and accessories.
- I can talk about parts of the body.

Let's Explore!

Vanessa is looking for a new dress. Peter says: "Oh brother"*!

* This is an expression that means someone is bored, annoyed or frustrated.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Vanessa: I need a new dress for the wedding. What do you think of this one?
Peter: The color is beautiful. The color red suits you. I think it's a bit too big!
Vanessa: The salesperson is finding me more dresses.
Saleswoman: How about this one?
Vanessa: Oh. Thank you. I'm trying this on. It goes to the knee.
Peter: Wow. Great. It looks very elegant with your long legs.
Vanessa: Thanks. This dress is perfect! I'm buying this one.
Peter: Do you want to look at the shirts?
Vanessa: No, that's OK. Now let's start looking for a suit for you.
Peter: A new suit? There's nothing wrong with my suit.
Vanessa: Peter, it looks terrible. The pants are old and worn. We're getting a new one!
 And you need a new shirt, too!
Peter: Oh, brother!

Let's Practice!

Learning Points

Simple Present Tense vs. Present Continuous Tense

You use the Simple Present tense to talk about:

- routine actions that don't change
- things that are always true

You use the Present Continuous tense to talk about actions that are happening right now, but will soon finish.

Simple Present Tense	Present Continuous Tense
Affirmative: I wear red clothes every day.	Affirmative: The salesperson is finding me more dresses.
Question: Do you like the color red?	Question: Are you trying on a dress?
Negative: I don't like red, I prefer blue.	Negative: I'm not finding anything interesting in this store.
