Sizes

Different countries and stores have different ways of measuring sizes.

In North America, sizes of clothes like coats and shirts are often measured in words: small, medium or large.

These words are often written in the letter form:

XS = extra small

S = small

M = medium

L = large

XL = extra large

Shoes are usually measured in numbers (7 - 13).

Belts and jeans are usually measured by the size of the person's waist (28" - 40"). The " sign means inches (= 2.5 cm).

Dresses are usually measured in numbers (0 - 18).

Coats and Shirts	Shoes	Jeans/Belts (Waist)	Dresses
small (S)	7 - 8	28" - 32"	0 - 4
medium (M)	9 - 10	34" - 36"	6 - 10
large (L)	11 - 13	38" - 40"	12 - 18

Examples:

- This dress is a size 18.
- I wear size 9 shoes.
- Do you have this in a 28" waist?
